

THEATRE EVENTS

General Guidelines

- It is compulsory for all participants to carry their college ID cards.
- Participants must maintain decorum inside the campus. Instances of misbehavior will be dealt with severely.
- Participants need to register before the given date. No late registrations will be accepted to take part in the competition.
- Use of obscene, vulgar, or any offensive language is strictly prohibited.
- Participants should report at least an hour before the event starts.
- Decision of the judges will be final.
- Changes in any rule will be highlighted or communicated before the start of the event.

Skit

- The duration of each play shall not exceed 20 minutes.
- Time shall be counted from the moment the signal is given or the team begins introduction, whichever occurs earlier. The rule of “empty stage to empty stage” shall be followed strictly. For stage setting and removal of sets and properties, a maximum of 10 minutes extra shall be allowed after taking charge of the stage.
- The number of participants shall not exceed ten (10), and the number of accompanists shall not exceed five (5). Each team shall bring its own props, sets, stage properties, makeup materials etc. General properties such as ordinary furniture may be provided by the organizers upon advance request.
- Participants may perform in Hindi, English or Gujarati. The script of the act shall be properly screened by the Coordinator of cultural Activities of the concerned institution and approved by the Head of the Institution.
- Judgement shall be based on various aspects of the play, including the subject, acting, stagecraft, design, overall presentation, and general impression.
- A committee of faculty members shall be constituted to ensure that proper decorum is maintained during the performance, including the dialogs of the play.
- The script of the play may be written by the students. The Coordinator of Cultural Activities shall review the script and obtain approval from the Head of the Institution.

Mimicry

- The duration of each play shall not exceed 5 minutes.
- Time shall be counted from the moment the signal is given or the team begins introduction, whichever occurs earlier.
- The number of participants shall not exceed one (1), and the number of accompanists shall not exceed two (2).
- Participants may perform in Hindi, English or Gujarati. The script of the act shall be properly screened by the Coordinator of cultural Activities of the concerned institution and approved by the Head of the Institution.
- Judgement shall be based on various aspects of the play, including the subject, stagecraft, design, overall presentation, and general impression.
- A committee of faculty members shall be constituted to ensure that proper decorum is maintained during the performance, including the dialogs of the play.

Mime

- The duration of each play shall not exceed 5 minutes.
- The number of participants shall not exceed six (6), and the number of accompanists shall not exceed two (2). Each team shall bring its own props, sets, stage properties, makeup materials etc. General properties such as ordinary furniture may be provided by the organizers upon advance request.
- Participants may mimic eminent personalities, historical events, or any other subject matter, using their creativity to tell a story.
- The performance may include background music or sounds, but no dialogues or words are permitted.
- Evaluations will be based on the following qualities: Imitation skills , Variety of sounds and voices used , Presentation of the imitated characters or events , Use of makeup ,Overall design and presentation ,General impression
- Accompanists may either provide background narration or play musical instruments for background music; however, they shall not appear on stage.
- Teams shall strictly adhere to the assigned theme; failure to do so may result in disqualification.